For identification of other buildings shown, see Appendix A.

3. General Description

3.1 Type of construction:

Cottage part is all frame; garage has brick exterior.

3.2 No. of stories:

Partial basement under cottage; otherwise one floor.

3.3 Increments of construction:

Constructed in two parts--see sketch.

3.4 Present area of building as shown in inventory records of Division of Campus Planning:

3,592 sq. ft. gross; 3,038 sq. ft. net assignable

3.5 Volume of building:

47,500 cubic feet (PP). (Note: Records in the Office of the University Architect indicate 47, 500 as the cubage of the addition only, and show an additional 9,860 cubic feet for the original feed house unit. This makes a total of 57,360 cubic feet.)

B. PLANNING & CONSTRUCTION

1. The plans were prepared by Joseph N. Bradford. The original in the University Architect's vault lacks the corner bearing the date.
2. The Board of Trustees on October 4, 1921 appropriated $2,600 for a "Feed stable and housing quarters in connection with the Artillery Barn." (012) There apparently was no formal approval of plans or award of contract.
3. The work on the pump and septic tank was done by William H. Conklin Co. and Adam Pitts was the general contractor (A).
4. Architect's office records show that work started on September 10, 1921, even though the appropriation was not made until October 4, 1921.

5. The final estimate was dated January 4, 1922 (A).

C. PLANNING & CONSTRUCTION--ADDITION

1. This garage was constructed as a WPA project without the normal plan approval, bidding, etc.
2. Board minutes of April 6, 1936 give October 29, 1935 as the date of completion.

D. DEMOLITION

1. The Board of Trustees on February 4, 1972 authorized demolition of the building, but it was still in use on June 15, 1972.

[See Addendum No. 1]

E. COST

1. Not listed in the Business Office reports.
2. Cost of the first unit is listed at $4,715.46 in the University Architect's records.
3. University Architect's records show $4,703.48 as the University's cost for the addition and indicate that the government's share of the cost was not known.
